Annual Staff*

Dedication

We, the Annual Staff of the 1960 Time 'N' Tide, dedicate this annual to a truly dedicated first grade teacher whose hard work and ability have given the right start to many. May your happy efficiency help mold many more lives, Mrs. Margaret Havens.

Annual Staff

STANDING: Faye Roberts, Business Manager; Mrs. Opal Vaughn, Sponsor; Christina Fletcher and Jo Ann Miguez, Staff Members. SEATED: LaDonice Hilburn, Business Manager; Glenda Mallette and Bennie Lynn Taylor, Editors.

STAFF MEMBERS, Not Pictured: Judy Ellis, Gale Murphy, Glenda Vaughn, Linda Gay Fletcher, Linda Parrish, Sylvia Prevost, and Helen Fairley.

Principal's Message

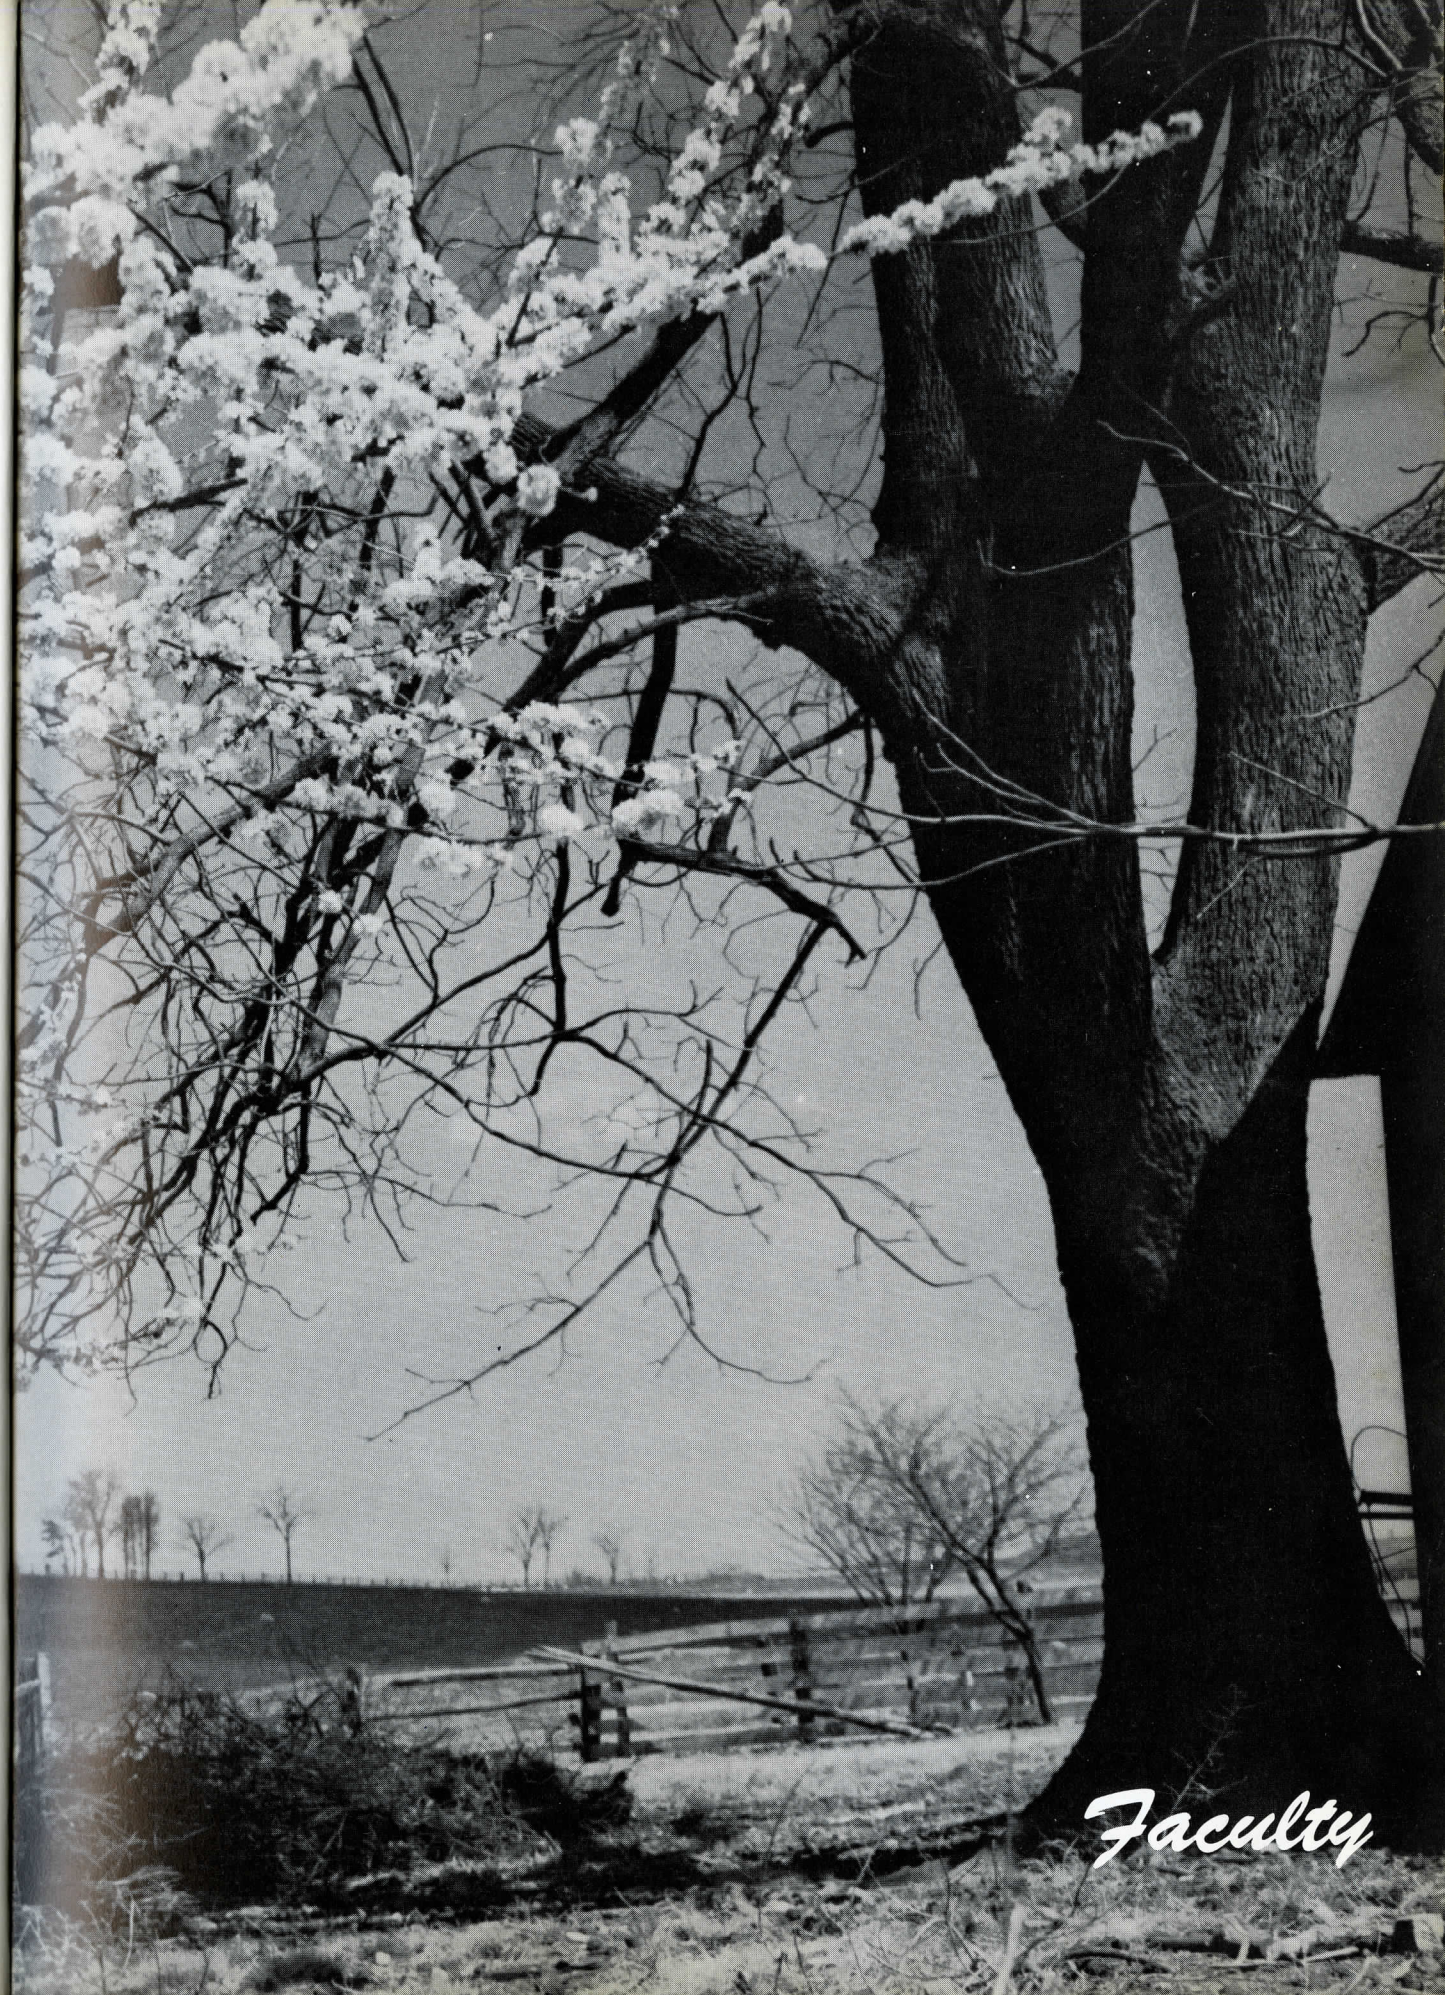

I would like to express my thanks to the Annual Staff and Sponsor for the time and effort that has made this year's "Time 'N' Tide" possible. Their cooperation and planning will help all of us relive many fond memories in the future.

I hope the knowledge and principles gained while at Vancleave School will be of help to this year's Seniors in future educational and occupational opportunities. May they keep an open mind and enjoy the many good things in life.

Sincerely,

L. J. Pennell

Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1960, of Vancleave High School in Jackson County, Mississippi, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make and publish this, our last will and testament.

I, Polly Chesney, leave my Pen Pals to Carolyn Mallette, just write they'll read them.

I, Janet Cole, leave my curly hair to Maxine Inabinette, don't comb it and it'll curl.

I, Marylin Dupree, leave my ability to accomplish a school girl trim to Jo Ann Miguez. Strong desire and a good will power is all it takes.

I, Stanley Ferguson, leave my ability to drive the school bus to Mike Smith, just feed it, it'll run.

I, Glenn Gamblin, leave my quietness to Minita Bonham, talking too much can get you into trouble.

I, LaDonice Hilburn, leave my smallness to Christina Fletcher, the best exercise is to keep pushing yourself away from the table.

I, Hurland Kates, leave my ability to flirt with the girls to Russell Mallette, don't be bashful, I'm not.

I, Linda Kay Langley, leave my ability to talk to Linda Parrish, say what you think, don't be bashful.

I, Linda Gail Lyons, leave my ability to grow watermelons to Mrs. Opal Vaughn, I hope yours can swim, mine couldn't.

I, George Mallette, leave my ability to burn and blow glass to Calvin Williams, it's much safer than burning sulphur.

I, Glenda Mallette, leave my happy memories at V.H.S. and my long fingernails to Helen Marie Fairley. Don't bite them, they'll grow.

I, Tillman Newton, leave my ability to stay out of trouble to Robert Murphy, silence is the secret, Robert.

I, Steve Olson, leave my ability to learn Physics to Henry Earl Tanner. Ask questions, that helps.

I, S. E. Overstreet, leave my ability to grow sweet potatoes to James Fleming, just a green thumb and a little work is all it takes.

I, Irma Jean Reeves, leave my ability to chew gum in class to Linda Fletcher, just don't let the teachers catch you.

I, Faye Roberts, leave my curls to Sylvia Prevost, it'll curl, just give it time.

I, Bennie Lynn Taylor, leave my job on the Annual Staff to Judy Ellis, get a camera and start snapping.

I, Donnie Taylor, leave my musical talents, to Freddie White, practice is what it takes, Freddie.

I, Ira Wilson, leave my ability to be a ladies' man to James Havens. Don't let them tease you, James.

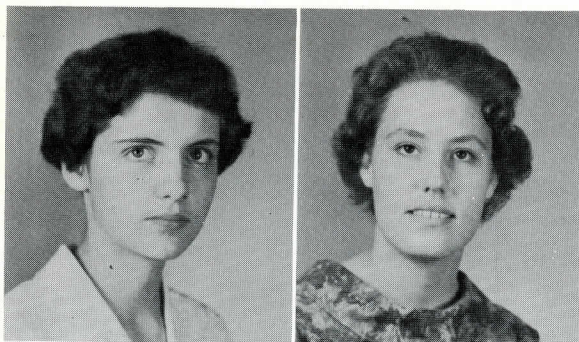

I, Jackie Wilson, leave my ability to sleep in class to Frank Maples, early to bed solves your problem.

I, Lloyd Wilson, leave my ability to type to Ronnie McRae. Don't blame the typewriter, Ronnie.

Although these assets may seem small, we hope that the persons who were fortunate enough to receive them will use them to the best of their ability.
